AND
SUN LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF CANADA (“THE CORPORATION”)

CHARTER OF THE GOVERNANCE, NOMINATION & INVESTMENT COMMITTEE

Purpose

The Governance, Nomination & Investment Committee (the “Committee”) is a standing committee of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) whose primary functions are to assist the Board with its oversight role by:

Governance

1. Developing effective corporate governance guidelines and processes;
2. Developing processes to assess the effectiveness of the Board and its Committees, and the contributions of individual Directors, including the Chairman of the Board (the “Chairman”);
3. Overseeing policies and procedures to sustain ethical behaviour;

Nomination

4. Overseeing the Director Recruitment Guidelines;
5. Identifying individuals with the competencies, skills and qualities determined by the Board to be required or best suited to complement the current Board composition, while considering the level of diversity on the Board, and recommending the nominees for election as Directors at each annual meeting;

Investment

6. Overseeing investment practices, procedures and controls related to the management of the general fund investment portfolio;
7. Reviewing and monitoring the annual Investment Plan; and
8. Reviewing and approving transactions, either separately or jointly with the Risk & Conduct Review Committee, where the acquisition of individual investments for the General Account would, on their own, exceed certain limits or ranges in the Investment and Credit Risk Management Policy, as outlined therein.

Membership

The Committee is composed of not less than three Directors, including a Committee Chair, appointed by the Board on an annual basis following each annual meeting.

Each member of the Committee shall be independent as defined in the Director Independence Policy. Committee membership is reviewed annually to ensure the Committee as a whole includes members with the experience and expertise required to fulfill the Committee’s mandate. The Committee will include members who are literate in corporate governance and investment matters.

Any member of the Committee may be removed or replaced at any time by the Board and the Board shall fill vacancies on the Committee.

Structure and Operations

A meeting of the Committee may be called at any time by the Chairman, by the Committee Chair or by two members of the Committee. The Committee meets as frequently as is necessary, but not less than four times a year. A quorum at any meeting of the Committee shall be three members.

The Chair of the Committee is consulted in advance in connection with the appointment, reassignment, replacement or dismissal of the Chief Investment Officer, and annually on the performance assessment and compensation awarded to that individual.

The Committee holds a private session at each regularly scheduled meeting with the Chief Investment Officer and that individual has unrestricted access to Committee members between meetings. The Committee holds a private session at each meeting of the Committee for members only. The Committee has full access to the Corporation's records and information and, in consultation with the Chairman, may engage any special advisors it deems necessary to provide independent advice or assist in the review of Director compensation or the identification of Director candidates at the expense of the Corporation.

On an annual basis, the Committee will review this Charter and the Forward Agenda for the Committee and, where necessary, recommend changes to the Board for approval. This Charter will be posted on the Corporation's website and the Committee will prepare a report on its activities for inclusion in the annual meeting material. The Committee shall undertake and review with the Board an annual performance evaluation of the Committee.
