Accident Benefit

The notes below supplement the contents of this leaflet and aim to provide a better explanation of Accident Benefit.

Notes:

1. This rider benefit covers injuries, disability, death and medical expenses that are incurred within 365 days of an accident and during the coverage period.
2. Total Disability is defined as either one of the following:
 - (1) The insured is completely unable to carry on any gainful occupation, and the disability occurs when the insured is aged between 16 and 60, and continues for no less than 6 consecutive months; or
 - (2) The insured suffers from total paralysis, complete and incurable insanity or is permanently bedridden before age 60. Such disability must continue for no less than 6 consecutive months and is irrecoverable as certified by a doctor.
3. Except for Double Indemnity, the maximum total benefit payable for the Accidental Injury and Total Disability Benefit is 100% of the Sum Assured plus the Renewal Bonus ("No Claim Bonus"), if any. When this maximum amount is paid, this rider benefit terminates.
4. After we pay any claims under this rider benefit, the No Claim Bonus will end. The original Sum Assured resumes and the eligibility for the No Claim Bonus starts anew.
5. Once a claim is paid for the Accidental Injury and Total Disability Benefit, the Weekly Indemnity coverage ends.
6. This rider benefit is not guaranteed renewable.
7. This rider benefit ends when the insured resides outside Hong Kong permanently or for 6 consecutive months or more.
8. Premiums are not guaranteed. However, premium rates applied on your rider benefit anniversary will not change for at least 12 months.

Key Product Risks:

1. Premium of this rider benefit is not expected to increase with age but may be reviewed and adjusted from time to time, in order to reflect the experience and change in future expectation. We reserve the right to adjust the premium for any group of insureds with similar risk profiles at every benefit anniversary during the premium payment term. Factors include but not limited to the following would be considered and reflected during the review:
 - a. Claim costs incurred under this rider benefit and the expected claim costs in the future
 - b. Expenses directly related to and indirect expenses allocated to the rider benefit
2. We will renew this rider benefit automatically at each benefit anniversary for another benefit year provided that premiums are paid on the premium due date. If you do not pay a premium on or before the premium due date, a grace period of 31 days from its due date will be allowed for the payment, during which time this rider benefit will continue in effect. If a premium has not been paid to us by the date on which the grace period expires, this rider benefit will lapse automatically on the due date.
3. This rider benefit is not guaranteed renewable, and we may discontinue this rider benefit on a 30-day written notice to you.
4. We have the right to terminate the rider benefit upon the earliest of the following:
 - a. premium is still unpaid and the grace period expires;
 - b. the insured passes away;
 - c. the insured attains age 65;
 - d. the date on which the Basic Plan/life coverage, to which it is attached, is terminated;
 - e. the insured's change of residence to outside of Hong Kong permanently or for a period of 6 consecutive months or more; or
 - f. the date on which an aggregate amount equal to 100% of the Sum Assured, plus the Renewal Bonus, if any is payable by us as one or more claims under the Accidental Injury and Total Disability Benefit.
5. Any transaction involving conversion between policy currency and other currencies would be exposed to foreign exchange risks such as the fluctuation in exchange rate against policy currency.
6. The cost of living in the future is likely to be higher than it is today due to inflation, so the benefit may be insufficient to meet your needs even if we meet our contractual obligation. You should hence consider the impact of inflation when you plan the benefit.
7. This rider benefit is an insurance policy issued by Sun Life Hong Kong Limited and your benefits are subject to the paying ability of Sun Life Hong Kong Limited. In the event that we become insolvent and unable to meet the contractual obligation under the policy, you may lose all or part of your premiums paid and benefits.

Key Exclusions:

We will not pay any claim directly or indirectly caused by or resulting from any of the following:

- a. the insured's committing or attempting to commit suicide or self-inflicted injury, while the insured is sane or insane;
- b. the insured's committing or attempting to commit a criminal offence or participating in any brawl;
